Customer number : _____

Important

Exo would like to remind the persons concerned that:

- Paratransit service is a form of public transportation, meaning that several customers travel together in the same vehicle.
- Paratransit customers may have physical, behavioural and/or intellectual disabilities.
- In accordance with the law, children must be secured in a child safety seat that is adapted to their height and weight until they can use a seat belt (details available on the SAAQ website):
 - The safety seat must be provided by the child's parent(s) or guardian.
 - Installing the seat in the vehicle is the driver's responsibility.
 - The safety seat may not remain in the vehicle between two (2) trips.

Any action that interferes with and/or poses a risk to safety will not be tolerated and will result in this authorization being revoked, with no recourse to appeal.
